Key Events

Crosby Hops Breeding Program Field Tour

Thursday, September 17th, 4 pm

Join our hop breeder, Dr. Jay Kalous, for a hands-on tour of our breeding program fields and a behind-the-scenes look at how new hop varieties are developed. Get in the rows, rub and evaluate multi-hill lines, and experience the process first-hand. Sign up here.

Crosby Harvest Party

Sunday, September 20th, 4 pm

Our annual industry celebration brings together outstanding beer, community, live music, food, and guided harvest tours. We'll also present a check to the Hop Quality Group in recognition of our pledge tied to Estate Grown Thora sales in support of continued public hop innovation. Shuttle service will be available from SE Portland. RSVP here for the party and optional transportation.

Champoeg Park Disc Golf Hang

Tuesday, September 22nd, 4 pm

Unwind with a casual and scenic round of disc golf at Champoeg State Park, just minutes from the farm and right on the Willamette river. Sign up here if you'd like to join!

TopWire Hop Project

During hop harvest, TopWire Hop Project transforms into a daily hospitality hub for brewers traveling to Oregon's Willamette Valley. Open daily during selection season, our on-farm beer garden, surrounded by Deep Cut™ Cascade and Chinook, features a rotating tap list of brewery collaborations, food trucks, nightly hangouts, and ongoing opportunities to connect with fellow brewers and the Crosby Hops team.

Local Events

Oregon Hop Festival at TopWire

September 11th & 12th

Annual consumer celebration of hop harvest hosted by TopWire Hop Project.

Mt. Angel Oktoberfest

September 17th - 20th

Break out the lederhosen! Traditional Bavarian festival with beer, food, music, and dancing.

Portland Timbers home matches

September 9th & 19th

They call Portland "Soccer City USA" for a reason. Catch a game at historic Providence Park in downtown Portland.

Selection & Showcases

Whether you're looking to select your lots or explore our latest varieties, our team is excited to guide you through the sights and aromas of Oregon hop harvest.

Selections and showcases will be hosted at both our Arbor Grove headquarters or Brewers' Lounge. Following your appointment, our team will tour you through the harvest facilities and end with a toast at TopWire Hop Project.

Appointments are scheduled Monday - Friday, 9 am - 4 pm. To make your appointment, please coordinate with your account manager or reach out to us at selections@crosbyhops.com.

Oregon Travel Guide

Hop harvest in Oregon isn't just a stop on the calendar—it's a full experience. By using Portland as your entry point, you can easily connect the best of the Pacific Northwest—world-class beer and Oregon and Washington hop regions—all within a single trip.

Here's our suggested itinerary:

- Fly into Portland
- Spend a day exploring Portland or the Willamette Valley
- Visit Crosby Hops for selection or showcase, farm tour, and hang out at TopWire Hop Project
- Optional: Continue to Hood River or Yakima
- Optional: Visit the Oregon Coast
- Return to Portland for a night of brewery hopping before flying home

Willamette Valley

Spanning from Portland to Eugene, the Willamette Valley is where hops, agriculture, and hospitality all come together.

Where to Stay - Wine Country

The Dundee Hotel | Dundee - $$

Clean, modern, and right in the middle of wine country.

McMenamins Hotel Oregon | McMinnville - $$

Quirky, historic, and walkable to everything in downtown McMinnville.

Airbnb or Vrbo | Wine Country - $$$-$$$$

Vacation rentals abound in wine country. These are a great option for teams: more space, better hang potential, and often a better value.

Where to Stay - Near the Farm

La Quinta Inn & Suites | Woodburn - $

Close to TopWire and the farm. Practical and comfortable accommodations.

Best Western | Woodburn - $

Same as above: practical and convenient.

Where to Eat - Wine Country

Red Hills Market | Dundee - $$

Casual, high-quality, and always hits. Open for breakfast, lunch and dinner with great sandwiches, pizza, and coffee. A perfect stop between tastings.

Trellis | Dundee - $$

Relaxed wine country dining with a seasonal menu and a great setting. Easy drop-in spot that's consistently solid.

Where to eat in wine country continued...

Wooden Heart | Dundee - $$

A cozy, wood-fired spot serving locally driven fare in a wine country setting.

Kopitos Cocina | Newberg - $$

Flavor-packed Mexican cuisine with a modern edge. Great for groups and a fun, energetic dinner option.

Mac Market | McMinnville - $$

Food hall vibes with multiple option, ideal for groups with different tastes. A fun and casual hang.

Pizza Capo | McMinnville - $$

Wood-fired pizzas, good beer selection, and an easy crowd-pleaser after a long day.

Where to Eat - Near the Farm

Luis's Taqueria | Woodburn - $

Authentic and consistently delicious.

TopWire Hop Project Food Trucks | Woodburn - $

Open for lunch and dinner Thursdays – Sundays featuring Curry Bai, Lively Station, and Gina's Taqueria.

Where to Drink

Wolves & People Farmhouse Brewery | Newberg - $$

A truly unique, farm-based brewery producing saisons and mixed fermentation beers using estate-grown ingredients.

Donald Tavern | Donald - $

A classic small-town dive bar. No frills, just cold beer.

Wolves & People Farmhouse Brewery serves up unique beers in a bucolic setting

Wineries

Even with beer as the focus, it's worth taking advantage of being in one of the best wine regions in the country. These spots offer great wine, beautiful settings, and a welcoming experience.

Durant Vinyards | Dundee Hills - $$

A unique stop combining wine, olive oil, and a seasonal lavender farm. Great views, multiple tasting experiences, and an easy place to spend a few hours.

Sokol Blosser | Dundee Hills - $$

One of the founding wineries in the Valley.

Rex Hill | Newberg - $$

Classic Willamette Valley Pinot Noir with a relaxed, polished tasting room.

Ambar Estate | Dundee Hills - $$$

A hospitality-driven experience rooted in regenerative organic farming. Thoughtful wines, beautiful setting, and a strong connection to the land.

Silver Falls State Park

After a few days of beer, food, and travel—get outside. Just 40 minutes from Woodburn, enjoy the Trail of Ten Falls, one of the best hikes in Oregon. You literally walk behind the falls.

Portland

The Rose City is full of world-class food and, of course, world-class beer. September is a great time to check out all that Portland has to offer.

Where to Stay

The Hoxton Portland | Downtown - $$$-$$$

Boutique and stylish.

Moxy Portland Downtown | Downtown - $$

Centrally located, great atmosphere, good value.

Jupiter NEXT Hotel | Southeast - $$$-$$$

Modern, design-forward, and in the middle of the brewery corridor.

AC Hotel Lake Oswego | Lake Oswego - $$

Right off of I-5 in Lake Oswego, a suburb to the south of Portland, the AC hotel is just a 30 minute drive to the farm.

Holiday Inn Express Lake Oswego | Lake Oswego - $

Same deal as the AC, right off I-5 giving you access to both Portland and everything to the south.

Where to Eat - Portland

Lardo | Southeast - $$

Big, satisfying sandwiches. Perfect between brewery stops.

Ken's Artisan Pizza | Southeast - $

One of Portland's most beloved pizza spots. Simple, wood-fired pies done exceptionally well.

Apizza Scholls | Southeast - $$

Legendary, New Haven-style pizza. Try the Caesar salad.

Kachka | Southeast - $$$-$$$$

Russian-inspired comfort food with a cult following.

Reel M Inn Tavern | Southeast - $

If you love dive bars, this is for you. Arguably the best fried chicken and jojos in town.

Lilia Comedor | Northwest - $$$

Mexican, PNW style. Creative, hyper-seasonal dishes with local ingredients. Reservation recommended.

Afuri Izakaya | Northwest & Southeast - $$

Clean, citrus-forward ramen and a modern, minimalist vibe.

Where to Eat - Lake Oswego / SW Portland

Holy Taco | Lake Oswego - $$

Great vibe, great food, and an easy win for a group dinner.

Bamboo Sushi | Lake Oswego - $$$-$$$$

A solid and upscale sushi spot with multiple locations in the Portland area.

Titos Taquitos | Southwest - $$

Exceptional Mexican fare with signature, potato-filled taquitos and tasty cocktails.

Breweries

Call it market research or continuing education, but you need to check out the amazing things going on in the Portland beer scene. These breweries are a great place to start.

Wayfinder | Southeast

World-class lagers + one of the best patios in the city.

Breakside | Multiple locations

Always executing at a high level.

Grand Fir | Southeast

Must-visit brewpub with chef-driven food and excellent beer.

Von Ebert | Multiple locations

Killer brewers and a range of styles.

Baerlic Brewing | Multiple locations

Great beer and great people.

Living Häus | Southeast

Lager-forward, dialed in.

pFreim Milwaukie | Milwaukie (Southeast)

City Hall turned Czech-inspired pub + restaurant.

Beer Bars & Bottle Shops

Belmont Station | Southeast

Bottle shop with a bar to sample and drink beers.

Horse Brass Pub | Southeast

British-style pub and pillar of Portland craft beer scene.

The Beer Mongers | Southeast

Beer bar & bottle shop conveniently located around the corner from Baerlic Brewing.

John's Marketplace | Southeast, Southwest

The OG bottle shop of Portland.

Loyal Legion | SE, SW, Beaverton, Airport

Beer bar featuring only Oregon-brewed beers – enough said.

The Horse Brass is one of Portland's original craft beer pubs

Bonus Stop: Hood River

On the way to Yakima, take advantage of the Columbia River Gorge—just 45 minutes east of Portland and packed with waterfalls, views, and quick hikes. Even a short stop to stretch your legs is worth it.

pFriem Family Brewers

Legendary beer, mandatory stop.

Kings & Daughters (The Walled Garden)

A hospitality-driven brewery experience with a lighter, modern approach to beer.

Ferment Brewing

Creative and forward-thinking. Right down the street from pFriem.

Double Mountain Brewery

A Hood River staple in the heart of downtown. Classic beers, great pizza.

Bonus Stop: Mt. Hood & Timberline Lodge

At 1.5 hours from PDX, this can be done as a day trip or as a stop on your way to Hood River. Head up highway 26 past Government Camp and take a left up the road to the historic lodge. Have a burger and brew at the Ram's Head Bar or out on the patio while taking in the epic view of Mount Hood.

Extended Stay: Oregon Coast

If you've made it this far, you may as well see the Pacific. Head west through the Coast Range to Tillamook, then follow Highway 101 north through Cannon Beach and up to Astoria—one of the most scenic coastal drives in Oregon.

de Garde Brewing (Tillamook)

A destination for spontaneous fermentation and wild ales. Known for pushing boundaries with locally foraged ingredients, a must-visit for brewers interested in mixed culture and terroir-driven beer.

Public Coast Brewing Co. (Cannon Beach)

Located in the heart of Cannon Beach, award-winning coastal craft beer with ingredients sourced from its nearby Public Coast Farm.

Fort George Brewery (Astoria)

A cornerstone of Oregon craft beer with a wide-ranging lineup and multiple spaces to hang.

Buoy Beer Co. (Astoria)

A coastal classic that's bounced back after losing its original waterfront space. Still a must-stop for fresh beer and a laid-back Astoria vibe.
